

First International Workshop in Sequential Methodologies (IWSM 2007)

Conference Proceedings Paper Deadline

Deadline: September 30, 2007: For timely dissemination of papers related to IWSM2007, all participants are requested to submit their manuscripts on or before September 30, 2007. Such manuscripts will be considered for possible publication in one of the special issues of SQA that are being planned or perhaps in a separately edited volume of papers (subject to peer reviews) dedicated to IWSM2007. The IWSM2007 related manuscripts arriving after September 30, 2007 will be considered for possible publication in one of the regular issues of SQA (subject to peer reviews). In other words, manuscripts should be submitted sooner than September 30, 2007 rather than later, if possible.

Hosted at Auburn University, July 22-25, 2007
